

What are your favourite topics of the course?

44 responses

What are your least favourite topics of the course?

32 responses

What are your EXPECTATIONS for key learnings, if any, from this course?

To be proefficient in looking at data and telling a picture

Decision making Analytics

Effectively converting data into 5th V

Decision making through available data

To analyse data efficiently

I want to overcome my fear of coding.

decision making, able to predict trends, improve skills

Taking effective data driven decision

What are your EXPECTATIONS for key learnings, if any, from this course?

To be good at data analytics

To learn the data visualisation techniques

Industry applicable learnings than theoretical ones to understand the connection between business analytics and digital aspects of business with decision making require the business viewpoint in analytics

Good skills and good salaried job in a reputed companies

Decision making from data

to be good at data analytics

What are your EXPECTATIONS for key learnings, if any, from this course?

To be able to solve and come up with useful solutions and predict the future possibilities through data given.

comprehension of advanced formulas and statistics

hands on real time projects to overcome fear of codingdecision making with data

What are your suggestions for improving this course?

too early to decide on that now

can say at the end

early to say

we can suggest after completing this course everything is good so far technically..

too early for this decision making had only one session so...

Hands-on-learning

What are your suggestions for improving this course?

We just have had one class. So far it is good.

too early to say

providing a hard copy of materials

More practical training than theoretical

early to say.

Speed up