

What are your least favourite topics of the course?

32 responses

What are your EXPECTATIONS for key learnings, if any, from this course?

Understanding and implementing data standardization

To be able to analyse data and make business sense out of it

Move on to senior level

Conceptual knowledge of Business Analytics.

Expertise and better understanding

Data driven decision making better job role

Learn specifically how case studies are done using different methods.

A clear understanding of Data Analytics and its applications in current job market

What are your EXPECTATIONS for key learnings, if any, from this course?

Learn from experts ,
hands-on tools,
handholding after the course

Able to process large sets of data conveniently , understand real case use of business analysis

To learn how businesses collect, store, process and use the data. Also about the tools are in trend today

get a sight of industry level Analytics and ideology Behind
Taking Decisions

Understanding complex data sets and deriving actionable insights

Learning all technical aspects and getting hand on experience.moreover doing a real time project

Understanding and implementing the learning in any research if I am able to pursue any further and also to be able to showcase my learning at my organization.

Develop analytical thought process

What are your EXPECTATIONS for key learnings, if any, from this course?

Expertise in Data Analysis

how to get the best info from data.

able to understand data and use it to growth

Wanted to use Business Analytics knowledge to make strategic decisions in my carrier make my skill more stronger

Learn the dashboards to analyze data. Crate data, model the scenario and run the algorithms.

I am keen to learn and make my fundamentals more stronger .

i want to become atleast an experience about the project work. I should understand the roadmap to showstopper. I want to see myself and regonise as the perfect business analyst

What are your EXPECTATIONS for key learnings, if any, from this course?

Conceptual knowledge of business analysis

Business Insights for better decision

To become proficient in data analysis with analytical tools To derive insights from data to show data reports in good dashboards how to solve case studies and take data-driven decisions.

Make entry into IT Industry.

Informed business decision using data analytics Effectively communicate analytics findings

Every business decisions' success is based on data that we have and what actions should be taken for the same. Expect to understand data better to grow with the organization.

To be able to express any data set in a simple way where any person with zero knowledge can understand what exactly any speaker is talking about

What are your EXPECTATIONS for key learnings, if any, from this course?

Practice Materials

More practical lesions and more cross question practical learning

Practice Materials

More practical session and cross question on spot. And on spot doubt clearing

Provide real time datasets for analysis

Real case studies

I hope it'll value time & money, give satisfaction of learning, with this scope of work should be increased

What are your suggestions for improving this course?

More hands-on tools

In-depth knowledge on Visual and predictive analytics

I would appreciate it if I get to learn everything from the basics.

Not sure

provide more hands on training

In-person sessions

there should be enough doubt solving sessions

topics and links that we can study external sources

What are your suggestions for improving this course?

Focus on more real case study

Real world examples

Providing more projects for practice

1.If materials , ppt can be made available before lecture
2. Live projects

How to handle business analyst situations or challenges. This should be discussed frequently because most companies ask this in an interviews provide more hands on training

Practical examples while learning concepts

To get learn from the scratch.

What are your suggestions for improving this course?

Get to know everything from scratch. As in this group there are people from different groups.

As of now I can't say anything because we are in a very early stage of this course.

Assignments on each tool which can be showcased in learning and professional platform as a little project

Discussion on new AI tools

How to implement these skills in real jobs and an understanding where we can join where such skills are needed.

Please cover all the topics from scratch. So, it will be easy for all students from different backgrounds.

Giving us real life problems to solve.