ABOUT ME

"I am a passionate designer with a deep love for architecture, viewing it not just as a career, but as a calling. I am highly creative, systematic, and a patient problem solver with a curious mindset, blending both scientific and artistic disciplines. I thrive in adjusting to challenging schedules and unexpected hours, effectively managing my time to align with project demands. I am committed to delivering high-quality results and continuously striving to refine my craft. My goal is to simplify and elevate my vision, driven by an unwavering passion for design."
