PROJECT

RISK PERCEPTION AND PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT OF EQUITY

INVESTOR

- Description: Employed innovative non-conventional data sampling techniques to gain deep insights into consumer preferences in equity investment and their behavior. Utilized a combination of social media sentiment analysis, online forums, and structured interviews to gather unfiltered and real-time data. The project shed light on unique aspects of investor sentiment and behavior, offering a fresh perspective on equity market dynamics. This project showcased my ability to think creatively and adapt research methods to uncover valuable insights in the finance field.

EXTRA CIRCULAR ACTIVITIES
